Content Now In Prison If He Gets Care

DeSalvo Hoped To Be Shot When He Fled Hospital

WALPOLE, Mass. (AP)—Self-proclaimed Boston strangler Albert DeSalvo originally hoped that by escaping from a mental hospital he would be shot to death, but is now content to remain in state prison if he receives proper psychiatric care, his attorney says.

DeSalvo hopes that the massive 32-hour manhunt for him has forced state officials to recognize that he needs the care and is the man who killed 13 women in the Boston area during an 18-month period. F. Lee Bailey said Sunday night.

The attorney said DeSalvo told him during a meeting at the prison that after escaping from Bridgewater State Hospital Friday morning he did "not intend to hurt anyone, especially women."

"He told me his purpose was to run around until somebody shot him, but he changed his mind in response to appeals from our office that were broadcast over the radio," Bailey said at a news conference.

Bailey said a $10,000 reward that his office offered for any one who captured DeSalvo alive "apparently frustrated his purpose — it was worth too much money to hold your fire."

The former handyman surrendered meekly to two employees of a uniform store in the Boston suburb of Lynn Saturday afternoon. Bailey said he doubts that anyone can show that DeSalvo, 35, was "captured."

Asked whether the massive manhunt state officials marshaled for DeSalvo gave implicit recognition to his claim to be the strangler, Bailey said, "The conclusion is mandatory."

When he was committed Saturday to the maximum security state prison he sought desperately to avoid, DeSalvo said he had been told that inmates there would try to kill him.

Bailey said, however, that DeSalvo no longer appears concerned about such a possibility.

"I think that if he is in danger, our clients and contacts in the prison will inform me — they're pretty dependable," Bailey said.

"Now that he is at Walpole, he sees why I told him he ought to prefer it."

"He finds that his quarters are 10 times better than the dungeon he had at Bridgewater and is content to wait and see what they'll do for him."

DeSalvo was being held in a hospital cell at the prison under 24-hour guard and apart from other prisoners, although corrections department officials said he might be integrated into the prison population as early as today.

DeSalvo was sentenced Jan. 18 to 10 years plus life in state prison after a jury convicted him of assaulting and robbing four women in their homes, but was returned to Bridgewater State Hospital at his own request pending an appeal.

The case was not related to the stranglings which terrorized Greater Boston from June, 1962, to January, 1964, but Bailey claimed that DeSalvo was responsible for them in seeking to have him acquitted on grounds of insanity and committed to a mental institution.

Jurors Still Being Sought In Speck Trial

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—The trial of Richard Speck, charged with the murder of eight nurses, entered its second week today with prosecution and defense still searching for the elusive first panel of jurors.

The principals in the trial — Judge Herbert C. Paschen, prosecutor William Martin and defense attorney Gerald Getty — spent the weekend recess in their Chicago-area homes.

Judge Paschen prepared his reply to a suit filed in the Illinois Supreme Court by the Chicago Tribune, charging that his limitations on news coverage violate freedom of the press.

Speck, 25, was in his basement cell at the Peoria County Courthouse. The defendant, who appeared bored during most of the first week of jury selection, relaxed on his rollaway bunk, exercised in his small cellblock and read paperback books.

A portable shower has been placed in the cellblock across from Speck's cell. His meals are brought from the Peoria County Jail, about 100 yards away.

The trial was moved from Chicago, scene of the murder of the eight nurses last July 14, to Peoria on a change of venue.

House To Act On Convention W. Va. Senate To Debate Gross Margin Tax Bill

CHARLESTON, W. Va. — The controversial gross margin tax — cornerstone bill to a $23 million tax reform package — faced its first floor debate in the West Virginia Senate today.

Also expected today was a House of Delegates vote on the constitutional convention proposal.

The gross margin bill must buck the influence of industry, which is dead set against the measure.

While House and Senate Republicans continue to be the most vocal opponents to the gross margin bill, one House Republican announced during the weekend he was breaking from the minority stand to support the plan.

Del. Leo G. Kopelman, R-Kanawha, said he favored the entire package because "our current tax policies impose too crushing a burden on those least able to bear the impact."

In addition to the gross margin proposal, other bills have reached the House and Senate floors proposing new ways to compute a corporate net income tax and the personal income tax.

Sen. J. Kenton Lambert, R-

Tucker, called during the weekend for Gov. Hulett Smith to call a special session of the legislature to consider the Papke tax proposals.

Speaking at Pineville, La. m-bert said an "in-depth study of the impact of the proposed Papke bills" on West Virginia's economy was needed before the measures could be passed.

The House was to receive today its own version of the gross margin tax from the Finance Committee, which reported the bill out Saturday.

Hazardous conditions existed for motorist and pedestrian alike as a wet snow covered the district today.

Ash crews were kept busy again as the highways became treacherous from the new fall.

East Liverpool street department crews began spreading ashes and salt when they reported for work at 7 this morning.

The forecast calls for snow flurries tonight and Tuesday with colder weather.

Rhodes Says He Won't Go To Vietnam

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes first said today he would go to Vietnam, then said later he would not make such a trip under any conditions.

Rhodes told newsmen accompanying him on a thwarted trip to Toledo that he would swing by Vietnam while in the Far East with an Ohio trade mission.

However, about an hour later, Rhodes told The Associated Press "under no conditions" would he make such a trip.

He indicated he had intended his earlier remark to be facetious and not to mean that he really did plan to visit Vietnam.

The governor, who earlier ruled out any visit to Vietnam, is to leave Wednesday on the trip similar to a business-hunting expedition made to Europe last year.

Rhodes is to leave after delivering his "state of the state" and budget messages to the legislature Tuesday night. He will be leading a delegation of businessmen and development officials for two weeks. The delegation will continue for two weeks after Rhodes returns home.

Plans call for the mission to fly nonstop out of Cleveland Wednesday morning for Anchorage, Alaska.

New Pressure On Hanoi

U.S. Navy Lays Mines In North Viet's Rivers

LBJ Wants No Trouble With Soviet

U.S. Minelayers Get Strict Orders On Shipping Lanes

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson wants no eyeball-to-eyeball confrontation with the Soviets over any sinking of Soviet ships off North Vietnam.

This was understood today by the strict orders to U.S. minelayers aimed at keeping their explosive out of international shipping lanes.

Nonetheless, administration sources expect that the new mining of North Vietnamese rivers will swell demands that the same be done to the country's principal harbor, Haiphong.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, a presidential advisor who used to be chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and ambassador to South Vietnam, reaffirmed over the weekend his view that Haiphong should be mined despite political difficulties this would raise with Moscow.

Taylor renewed his proposal to close the port because, he said, 85 per cent of North Vietnam's imports enter there, including militarily important oil and surface-to-air missiles from the Soviet Union.

Former Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater said the bombing of the North should be stepped up to include the docks at Haiphong where, he said, up to 10 Soviet vessels unload war cargoes each day.

Asked about the consequences if a Soviet ship were hit in Haiphong, Goldwater replied: "That's too damn bad."

Johnson's policy has aimed at "bridgebuilding" better relations with Moscow — and at keeping the Vietnam conflict limited, especially avoiding war with the nuclear-armed Soviet Union.

And any attack on a nation's ships, in the opinion of U.S. diplomats, is highly likely to touch off a crisis.

Thus today's Saigon announcement of mine-laying by Navy planes was designed to make clear to outside powers — especially the Soviets — that the U.S. minesweepers are under tight leash.

Truck Hits Tree, House

A 53-year-old Pittsburgh area trucker is in "fair" condition at Rochester General Hospital with injuries suffered when this truck tractor's brakes locked and it smashed into the tree in Industry early today.

The tractor, headed north-east on Route 68, veered off the left side of the roadway and hit the tree and porch at the home of Mrs. Emma Thorne at 1:35.

The home is opposite the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. tracks and oil terminal in Industry.

Police Chief Ray Hendershot of Industry said the cab of the 1967 GMC tractor was wrapped around the tree and one steel beam of the frame penetrated the trunk of the maple.

Part of the porch was loosened and a piece struck the adjacent home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lambert, who were watching television at the time. Lambert telephoned an ambulance, then summoned Hendershot.

Sirianni, who had left the loaded trailer at the A. & P. Market in Midland earlier, managed to climb out of the cab. He said the brakes locked on the rig and he was unable to keep the tractor on the highway.

Charles Thorne of Industry, son of Mrs. Thorne and owner of the structure, said the foundation apparently was not damaged. Mrs. Thorne resides at the rear of the structure. The apartment in front is unoccupied.

GOP Sees Victory

Senate Debating Ohio Bond Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Senate braced for marathon debate on Gov. James A. Rhodes' bond commission plan today but Republican supporters already were assured of victory.

They dominate the upper chamber 23-10.

Senate Majority Leader Theodore M. Grav R-3 Miami called a 4 p.m. floor session — four hours earlier than usual — to consider the plan which carries a comparatively new concept in financing capital improvements.

The constitutional resolution would create a five-member Ohio Bond Commission to float bonds for capital improvements and highways without voter approval, with certain limitations. The proposal already passed the House but will be returned there because of Senate amendments.

Action on the resolution was slated as the first of several important decisions pending as the lawmakers returned from week-end recess to begin their ninth work week.

The administration's plan to redistrict the legislature is up for a vote in the House Tuesday. The governor will deliver his State of the State address and his proposed two-year budget at a joint session Tuesday night.

Rhodes leaves Wednesday on a three-week trade mission to the Far East.

Committees of both Houses scheduled a full round of hearings later in the week of a long list of proposed new laws.

Resignations Rise To 36

24 Cadets Are Quizzed In Latest Cheat Scandal

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Twenty-four cadets at the Air Force Academy are being questioned in the latest cheating scandal after the number of resignations rose to 36.

Three cadets resigned Sunday after admitting they had broken the honor code, which says: "We will not lie, steal or cheat, or tolerate among us anyone who does."

The cheating centered around the passing of test information to classmates who were to take the same test later in the day. All but 5 of the 36 who have resigned were directly involved in the cheating.

The five cadets not directly involved were found guilty of "toleration" under the honor code because they knew of the exchange of information and did not report it.

Rev. Francis J. Gilchrist, the Roman Catholic chaplain at the academy, told the cadets in his Sunday sermon that while the honor code is strict, it is necessary to national security.

"It is a different, difficult and honorable life," he said, "but it is lived with honorable men. The toleration of wrong is universally known as thieves' honor. Are we thieves?" he asked the cadets.

Aims To Cut Flow Of Men From North

Viet Cong's Shells Kill 11 Americans And 35 Vietnamese

SAIGON (AP)—U.S. Navy planes started sowing mines in rivers of North Vietnam today in a third new increase of military pressure on the Hanoi regime.

U.S. military headquarters said the step, like the other two announced over the weekend, was aimed at cutting the flow from the North of men and supplies to South Vietnam. The headquarters announced earlier that long-range artillery in South Vietnam was shelling North Vietnam across the demilitarized zone and that warships of the U.S. 7th Fleet were bombarding military targets from off the North Vietnamese coast.

In South Vietnam, the Viet Cong shelled the big American airbase at Da Nang and an adjoining Vietnamese village with mortars and rockets early Monday, killing 11 Americans and 35 Vietnamese civilians. Another 70 Vietnamese and 32 Americans were reported wounded and an ensuing fire burned 150 wood and tin Vietnamese shacks in the village of Ap Do, on the edge of the airbase.

Reports from Da Nang said 11 American planes were damaged. U.S. headquarters in Saigon said the damage to aircraft was light and the airbase was closed for several hours but reopened at daybreak.

Some reports said the Communists used Soviet 120mm mortar shells, the largest in their arsenal which have been used infrequently in the war. Other reports said the Communists fired eight-inch rockets from truck rocket launchers. If so, it would be the first time in the Vietnam conflict this size rocket was fired.

U.S. headquarters in Saigon said only 12 to 14 rounds were fired, but U.S. officers at the scene said 18 rounds landed on the airbase and about 56 more hit the neighboring village.

As the U.S. command announced the mining of North Vietnamese waterways, North Vietnam charged the naval shelling caused civilian casualties and sent a protest to the control commission. Hanoi also claimed that North Vietnamese shore batteries hit a U.S. warship and set it afire. A U.S. communiqué said the destroyer Benner "silenced a North

Court Sours Hoffa Plea On New Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court refused today to reconsider its Dec. 12 decision upholding James R. Hoffa's federal jury-tampering conviction and eight-year prison sentence.

The court rejected the Teamsters Union president's plea for another hearing in a brief order and without amplification. It noted only that Justices Byron R. White and Abe Fortas did not participate.

This clears the way for sailing of the head of the 1.7-million-member union. However, Hoffa could still try to remain free on bail pending court decisions on other legal challenges he has made to his 1964 conviction.

Such freedom is at the discretion of lower federal courts.

Hoffa, 54, was convicted in a U.S. District Court in Chattanooga of tampering with jurors at his 1962 conspiracy trial in Nashville. A mistrial had been declared in Nashville when the jurors could not agree.

Area Man, 47, Killed As Car Leaves Road

James A. Hassler Dies Of Fractured Skull Near Lisbon

County's 1967 Traffic Toll 4 KILLED This date in 1966—1 killed! NO NEED FOR SPEED

A 47-year-old Lisbon area man died of a crushed skull in a one-car accident early Sunday south of Lisbon and authorities today theorized he would have survived had he been using the seat belts in the vehicle.

James A. Hassler of Lisbon R. D. 1 was killed almost instantly when his 1967 sedan rammed an embankment and rolled along Route 164, almost two miles south of Lisbon yesterday at 1:30 a. m.

Mr. Hassler was pronounced dead at the scene by Columbiana County Coroner William A. Kolozsi, who said the victim's skull was crushed when caught between a door and the frame of the car.

The Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Mr. Hassler was southbound on Route 164 when his new car went off the right side of the road and struck the embankment. It then rolled. The section of road is a long, curved grade.

Dr. Kolozsi said the victim apparently was bounced around inside the vehicle and was partially thrown out a door that came open. The car then rolled, crushing him. He probably would have been saved had his seat belts been fastened, the coroner commented.

This was the fourth traffic fatality in the county this year. (Turn to FATALITY, Page 13)

Court Jails Pair In Drunk Driving

Two East Liverpool district men were given jail terms and fined $250 and costs each today in Municipal Court after pleading guilty before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

The stiffest penalty was meted out to John T. Riley, 41, of Rankin St., Glenmoor, after the judge noted it was his second offense on such a charge in less than a year.

Riley was given a 10-day City Jail sentence in addition to the fine on the drunken driving charge and an additional 10-day sentence in the County Jail at Lisbon on a charge of driving after his license had been suspended.

Riley was arrested Sunday morning at 4:21 on 5th St. at Market St. by Patrolman Dwight Garvey. Questioned by the judge, Riley said his condition resulted primarily from "nerve medicine" which he had taken. He also admitted consuming "three or four beers."

NOTING THE prior arrest on the same charge, the judge said: "Apparently I did not make a believer of you the first time." The judge ordered that the two jail sentences will be served consecutively, rather than concurrently, which means the defendant will spend a minimum of 20 days behind bars.

The judge ordered a fine of $250 and costs and a three-day jail term for Ralph Mercer of R. D. 1, who also pleaded guilty to a charge of drunken driving. In addition, Mercer was given a 10-day term in County Jail on a charge of driving without an operator's permit.

Mercer was arrested Feb. 13 at 4:33 p. m. on the River Rd. by Patrolman Karl Samples.

The judge ordered continuances until Friday at 9 a. m. in the cases of two more defendants charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol after each said he wished time to obtain counsel.

The defendants are: Patrick J. Samora, 45, of New Waterford, cited at 12:25 a. m. Saturday after a collision with another car on the lot at Bud's Restaurant on E. 3rd St.

Dean M. McGivern, 21, of Irondale, arrested at 6:13 a. m.

'Fire Season' Set For Area; Permits Due

The District 3 Office of the Ohio Division of Forestry and Reclamation at New Philadelphia reminded today that the spring forest fire season will begin Wednesday and continues through May 31.

During these months, burning permits are required for all fires kindled in the open outside the corporation limits of towns and villages.

Burning permits are issued, free of charge, by local forest fire wardens to land owners, their tenants or their agents.

Safety precautions and regulations described on the permits must be fully observed. Burning without a permit or allowing a fire to escape control is a violation of the state forest fire laws and the person responsible is liable to prosecution, the division office pointed out.

Listed below are area townships included in the organized forest fire protection area and the local forest fire wardens for each:

Unwavering Determination

The Johnson administration is unshaken in its determination to wear down the undeclared enemy in Vietnam with aerial bombing and search-and-destroy ground warfare.

Meanwhile, time ticks on.

One year from now, the nation's political movers and shakers will be starting their quadrennial political skirmish. President Johnson, by his own admission, does not expect the undeclared enemy in Vietnam to leave the field of battle in as short a time as one, two years, or any measurable span of years. He and the militarists advising him say it will be an indefinitely long war.

But in 1968 he will be listening to political movers and shakers.

Militarists are no use in national elections, unless they are running for something—and in that event they think like politicians anyway.

Dwight D. Eisenhower, was the nation's foremost militarist by the end of the '40s, thought like a politician in 1952 when he said in the closing days of his race against Adlai Stevenson that he would keep right on running all the way to South Korea if he won, to see what he could do about cooling off the war. He won and kept his promise.

The Johnson administration's strategy of wearing down the undeclared enemy in Vietnam is the same grim resoluteness that Harry Truman had shown about wearing down a vaguely defined enemy in Korea. Was it North Koreans, Red Chinese, Russian Marxists or Koreans who hated foreigners that turned the Korean "police action" into one of the bloodiest of little wars?

Mr. Truman, too, was taking military advice. Every four years in the United States, political advice takes precedence over military advice. No one knows this better than President Johnson.

Politicians and the militarists will be 9,000 miles apart in the national election of 1968—the distance from Saigon to Washington.

Two 'Well Dones'

"Well dones" to the Oak Glen High School wrestling squad and to the East Liverpool High School basketball team.

Oak Glen edged Weirton over the weekend for the West Virginia state title in competition at Morgantown and the Potters captured the Sectional tournament at Steubenville.

Fans of both schools can be proud of the achievements of their athletes and their coaches.

For Oak Glen's wrestlers, it's all over until next season. They can rest on their laurels. But for the local cagers it's only the beginning along the rocky tournament trail. They move into Regional play next Friday against a Coshocton team which boasts an imposing record.

If they play the ball of which they are capable, the Potters could keep rolling. Regardless of the future, however, they have the distinction of being the first team from here to win a Sectional crown since 1957, an accomplishment in itself.

than the token penalties now being exacted.

Padlocking would deprive the night spots of the revenue needed to successfully continue their operations.

The Speechmakers

There is a real skill involved in making an effective and entertaining speech, and we doff our hats to the winners of the area contest toastmasters International held here Saturday Night.

Those who have had to suffer through a dull and tiring after-dinner talk should utter a silent prayer of thanks to the Toastmasters in general for attempting to raise the standards of speechmaking.

There are politicians, PTA chairmen, club officers and committee directors who are occasionally witty, educational, illuminating and able to transmit a thought.

But too many speakers are inept, self-conscious, boring, long-winded, confused and confusing.

The Toastmasters are helping this area produce some assured and capable speakers—something we can always use.

British Spy, and Nathan Hale, the American spy, were hanged.

But the British were good at it. During the revolution, when Benjamin Franklin went to Paris to line up the French on the American side, one of the advisers he considered a patriotic American was a well-paid British spy.

In the 1790's, when this country sent envoys to Paris to ward off war with the French, Talleyrand, the French foreign minister, refused to see them but sent in confidential agents who wanted a bribe of $250,000.

One authority on espionage in the Civil War recently expressed the belief that the Union side alone had about 4,200 spies. In his special war message to Congress in 1917 President Woodrow Wilson said the Germans had already so saturated this country with their spies "they could never be our friends."

BUT SPIES, bribes and informers go away back. The Bible had its share. Judas, for inferring on Jesus, got 30 pieces of silver. When Samson gave the Philistines the miseries, they promised Delilah 1,100 pieces of silver for finding out where his strength lay. She discovered it was in his hair and when he went to sleep she brought in a man to cut it off.

Machiavelli made a name for himself with his 16-century study, "The Prince," on how, including dirty tricks, an ambitious man could take power. But 1,800 years before that, in India, Katilya wrote a similar but not so well known book.

It was even more detailed than Machiavelli's, with all kinds of dirty tricks spelled out. It wasn't translated into English until about 1900.

Off And Running

A Bum Steer

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON

I have a confession to make, and the sooner it gets out in the open, the better I'll feel about it. I don't drive a car.

Americans are broadminded people. They'll accept the fact that a person can be an alcoholic, a dope fiend, a wife beater and even a newspaperman, but if a man doesn't drive there is something wrong with him.

Through the years I've found it very embarrassing to admit it to anyone, and my best friends tend to view me with suspicion and contempt.

But where I really run into trouble is when I go into a store and try to make a purchase with a check.

It happened again last week when I went to a discount house at a large shopping center in Maryland. I wanted to buy a portable typewriter and the salesman was very helpful about showing me the different models.

I DECIDED ON one and then I said, "May I write out a personal check?" "Naturally," he said kindly. "Do you have any identification?"

"Of course," I said. I produced an American Express credit card, a Diners' Club credit card, a Carte Blanche credit card, a telephone credit card and my pass to the White House.

The man inspected them all and then said, "Where's your driver's license?" "I don't have one," I replied.

"Did you lose it?" "No, I didn't lose it, I don't drive a car."

He pushed a button under the cash register and suddenly a floor manager came rushing over.

The salesman had now become surly. "This guy's trying to cash a check and he doesn't have a driver's license. Should I call the store detective?"

"Wait a minute. I'll talk to him," the manager said. "Did you lose your driver's license for some traffic offense?"

"No, I've never driven. I don't like to drive."

"Nobody likes to drive!" the floor manager shouted. "That's no excuse. Why are you trying to cash a check if you don't have a driver's license?"

"I thought all the other identification was good enough. I had to be cleared by the Secret Service to get this White House pass," I said hopefully.

THE FLOOR MANAGER looked scornfully at the pass and all my credit cards. "Anyone can get cleared by the Secret Service. Hey, wait a minute. How did you get out here to the shopping center if you don't drive?"

"I took a taxi," I said.

"Well, that takes the cake," he said. By this time a crowd had gathered.

"What happened?" "Guy doesn't have a driver's license."

"Says he doesn't even drive. Never has driven."

"Lynch him."

"Tar and feather him."

"How un-American can you get?"

The crowd was getting ugly, so I decided to forget the typewriter.

"Never mind," I said. "I'll go somewhere else."

By this time the president of the store had arrived on the scene. Fortunately, he recognized my name and okayed the check. He was very embarrassed by the treatment I had received and said, "Come on, I'll buy you a drink."

"I forgot to tell you, I said, 'I don't drink either.'"

This was too much, even for him, and he pushed me toward the door.

"Get out of here," he said, "and don't come back!"

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

Dear Truman Twill:

As a sometime reader of spy stories, I am always fascinated by anything made public about the Central Intelligence Agency.

The trouble is there is so much being made public about it right now I can't keep up with it. What the Central Intelligence Agency needs is a good public relations man to keep its name out of the papers.

A little bit of publicity for a spy agency is too much.

But it is doubtful whether the people who run the CIA would listen to a public relations man.

Suppose the Chief asked the PR man, "Okay now, Mac, we are planning to set up a new government in Guatemala, what will that do to our image?"

"Gee, Chief," says Mac, "I thought we already tried that."

"No," says the Master Spy Chief, "we just made it look like we tried so the opposition would be confused."

"But what does that do for our public image, Chief? The public gets as confused or even confuseder than the opposition."

"Listen, Mac," says the Chief, "that's what you're here for, to help straighten out our public image but confuse the opposition."

"I resign," says Mac.

BESIDES a new PR man, what the cloak-and-dagger Central Intelligence Agency needs is a new scabbard so its dagger won't keep ripping holes in its cloak.

Probably as long as we have an open society we will be hearing stories of the weird shenanigans of the CIA. This is one of the benefits of living in an open society. Bet the Russians, Chinese, Cubans, Albanians and citizens of other Communist countries never hear about the bloopers their spy agencies pull.

While we are at it we suggest the National Student Association get a new PR man, too. But his superiors probably would pay about as much attention to him as the CIA's would.

The CIA is reported to have secretly given the National Student Association millions of dollars over a period of 15 years. Imagine!

You could polish a lot of tarnished images for that kind of dough. But your spies might not find out much.

By the way, Twill, what do you use to polish a tarnished image? Banana oil and soft soap?

Faithfully yours,
MAX

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW

"Avoid Ohioville Borough, if possible, home of the police who would rather 'shoot than shout' and also a justice of the peace, who would rather 'charge than retreat'."

Avoid Ohioville Borough? Indeed!

I read this nauseating statement in The Review of Feb. 15. The remainder of the letter painted an awful picture of our community. It is the nature of some people to throw barbs at others, to cover up their own shortcomings. But why use our very efficient police force as clay pigeons? Why make an attempt to discredit someone for performing their duty? Why attempt to belittle people and not recognize our failures? Not only were the police downgraded, but also a justice of the peace and some of the councilmen.

THE ARTICLE I am taking to task, dealt with two boys 13 years of age and two boys 17 years of age. We, as readers, were made to believe that these boys were "innocently" planning to paint the water tower located in Fairview. One that has been painted so "artistically" before.

Anyone passing this tower can easily see the display of "artistic talents" of someone who should have had his pants warmed long before he revealed this hidden talent. Have you seen this senseless destruction of our school buildings? Our tax money pays for this. Have you been crowded from our roads by those riding cycles and driving Dad's car? These are but few in numbers in comparison to juvenile and young adult incidents in our neighboring communities.

Why? Because these young people are not going to fool around in an area where law enforcement is practiced 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

It was admitted that the boys were en route to the tower to paint it. The time of day was conveniently omitted. The fact that a nearby business was recently robbed was also revealed. The fact that this establishment was under police surveillance at this particular time, was also admitted. The fact that these "gun happy cops" flooded the area with lights was also admitted. These youths, attempting to re-paint this piece of public property, were certainly in the wrong. What business does a minor have sneaking about our borough at 2 or 3 in the morning? His intentions are certainly not good ones. The law has enough to do protecting us from professional prowlers.

Then we are to believe that it is natural for someone, especially kids, to run because shots were fired at them "vertically or horizontally". Are we to assume the kids were fired at?

A recent robbery, about 3 in the morning; four figures stealthily moving around this building; you don't know who it is or if they are armed; you shout a warning; they run. What should you do?

Then we are informed that the police shouted "rather weakly." Who heard this weak shout? Anyone who knows our burly police chief must admit his voice isn't a weak one. Why, his voice, even in low tones, would scare the pants off of a kid.

I AM DISGUSTED with people who try to protect a wrong-doer and veil foul and try their darndest to discredit others to cover up their own shortcomings. We have enough hoodlums and troublemakers to contend with.

If our own are in the wrong and we are fortunate enough to have an understanding official point out that corrective measures should be taken, we should certainly be appreciative of this advice and clean up our back yard, so to speak.

On the other hand, if we are narrow-minded and refuse to see our own misgivings and try to perpetuate second-rate citizens unto the social community, then we are dead wrong. We are, in reality, inferior citizens.

I hardly think that there was any unfairness toward anyone in this matter as implied. I suspect that there may have been some sort of attempt at preferential treatment and it was denied.

I happen to know the lad whose fine was paid. I suspect his admitting his guilt did not sit well with his parents either. I admire this fellow for owning up to a wrong, an unfortunate niche in his young life, although a minor infraction. He has learned a lesson, one he won't soon forget. This lesson has undoubtedly put him back on the right road. I have not read any derogatory statements from his parents. Nor have I seen, nor heard any condemnation of our officials.

It is not fair to try to make our community look like it is run by a "hangman judge and a gun-happy marshal." I happen to know better, and it is a certainty a lot of others do also.

We have a good community. We have good, honest and devoted councilmen. We are also fortunate to have some of the best police protection in the valley. If some do not like Ohioville, and the way it is run, do something to help.

This is my home town. I am standing up to be counted.

Piano Team Draws 'Bravos' Here

By ROBERT SHANKOVICH
ELHS Vocal Music Director

"Multiply four swiftly - moving, talented hands by 176 keys that respond to a touch of genius, and you have the Teltchik brothers."

This is how one press review described the duo - piano team which appeared at Westgate Auditorium last Saturday evening.

Add to this a receptive, congenial audience, and the ingredients for a pleasurable musical evening were complete.

The program marked the closing of the current season of the Tri-State Civic Music Association.

Each member of the duo-team is a topnotch performer in his own right. Each has the ability to elicit from his instrument whatever sonic substance he chooses. Each possesses such sureness of the keyboard's topography that his playing seems effortless and natural. Combined, the magical communication between brothers Alfred and Herbert results in a nearly flawless ensemble. Indeed, one seemed to be watching (and hearing) a single pianist mirrored in a reflecting cyclorama.

THE OPENING selection, Toccata and Fugue by J. S. Bach, was written probably during the composer's early twenties. In view of the fact that Bach was to develop this musical form to heights yet unattained, the D minor Toccata is less mature—consequently less interesting than the other six. It is forgivable to attribute a lack of maturity to a composition of even as revered a composer as Bach; it appears so only in relation to the prolific output of his entire lifetime.

The musicological purist might question the un-Bachlike sounds which emanate from resonant grand pianos, so unlike the instruments for which the master composed. The Teltchiks employed the pedal extensively. Yet, Bach's instrument had no such mechanical device for sustaining tone.

But who can say that Bach would not have preferred our present day pianos, capable of nuance which he undoubtedly heard in his mind's ear?

THE HIGHLIGHT of the evening was the Sonata for two pianos by Mozart. Each of the three movements, unique in character, shows the composer's versatility needed for variety, as well as resourcefulness needed to unify a composition of such length and significance.

The Mozart melody is exquisite tonal lace. The lace was granted a worthy display by the artists. Occasionally a portion of melodic delicacy was overshadowed by the busy activity of the accompanimental texture. This was due to the relative position of the pianos or the unpredictable consequences of acoustical phenomena. Certainly it was not due to any unawareness on the part of the performers.

During the course of the Sonata, phrases are tossed playfully from piano to piano. It was at these points that the student of piano could observe the difference in each player's technique, or rather his personal choice of technical resources. Melodic embellishments were consistently executed, always in accord with the Teltchiks' concept. The rhythmic drive inherent in the Teltchiks' performance reminded this listener of the kind of vitality breathed into a composition by the renowned harpsicordist, Wanda Landowska. The habit of slightly retarding certain measures of anacrusis added much to the musical excitement.

THE THREE remaining selections in the first half of the program were cleverly geared to audience psychology. The Scaramouche Suite by Milhaud (first movement) was a gentle letdown, but hopefully not an apology for the Bach and Mozart.

Next was a bit of tranquility, Prelude, Fugue and Variation by Franck. Punctuating this first segment with no less than an exclamation mark was a Chasins arrangement of Strauss' Blue Danube Waltz. In his arrangement Chasins went a long way to stretch a musical point. (Overheard: "After all, what more could you possibly do to dress up a simple waltz tune?") Not having to concentrate on sensitive musical matters, the pianists were free to demonstrate showmanship demanding all sorts of loud and fast keyboard theatrics. This selection may have been included to whet the appetite for the post-intermission segment. For some, it must have made the break rather more welcome.

THE SECOND portion of the concert included an impressive array of program music by Shostakovich, Rachmaninoff, Grieg, Debussy, Benjamin and Liszt. The catchy dance rhythms and unacademic melodies in much of the music activated the imagination of the listeners who found the music very easy to listen to, or around. The fallacy in such programming is that it provides the subjective listener with a vehicle for his daydreams, far removed from the music itself. (Overheard: "Just think of all the things you can think about!")

Nevertheless, the choice of repertoire is justified and can be defended. It is always a perplexing decision for those on the stage side of the proscenium whether to entertain at the expense of boring the culturally better-oriented, or whether to educate at the expense of overwhelming those who rely solely upon instinct for their pleasure.

The Teltchik brothers hide behind no shield of pretence. They approach their art in the true fashion of the artist, always with fidelity to score tempered with integrity of style and interpretation.

A chorus of bravos should be directed to those members of our Civic Music Association who diligently and unselfishly join in the endeavor to bring good music to our community. We have only to attend and enjoy—and for a small price compared with similar concerts in larger cities.

Jan Dietz Recognized As 'Adeline Of Year'

Mrs. Jan Dietz of California Ave., Chester, received recognition as "Adeline of the Year" during the meeting of Sweet Adelines, Inc., Friday night at the Potters Savings and Loan Co. annex.

She was crowned officially by Mrs. Nancy Beaver, last year's winner, at the annual show in November at Westgate School. Elected by secret ballot, she received the honor for advancing the interests of the organization here and in the region.

A charter member of the chapter in 1959, she was president from 1964-66. She served a term as vice president and has been chairman of most of the standing committees. Other offices she has held were those of parliamentarian, parade chairman, editor of "The Potter Patter" and council and junior council member.

Her present affiliations with Region 16 of the Great Lakes Region are bulletin editor of "The Sixteenth Note" and a member of the nominating committee and the international judging training program, where she became an approved candidate judge.

Mrs. Dietz has served as regional judging chairman and on panels in the education classes held at Buffalo and Euclid. She has attended the international conventions at Berkeley, Calif.; Toronto, Canada; Minneapolis and Detroit.

member of Region 14 of the Central Atlantic Region. Mrs. Dietz edited the bulletin "Add A-Line" and served on the quartet promotion and teller's committees.

She organized and sang with the first local barbershop quartet, "The Barber Curls," and later sang with "The China Bells." Both groups participated in regional competition.

A teacher at Garfield School in East End, she is the wife of Robert L. Dietz. They have four children.

During business conducted by Mrs. Ruth Rinehart, president, a tentative uniform was modeled by Miss Norma Jones.

Named to the nominating committee were Mrs. Dietz, chairman, Mrs. Madalyn Mack and Mrs. Jody Popejoy. The election will be held April 7.

Mrs. Nancy Beaver directed the rehearsal of the numbers to be presented at the spring competition May 5-7 at the Hilton Hotel in Pittsburgh.

Guests were Miss Cheryl Anderson and Mrs. Carol Henry.

2 Years To Live

ASWAN, Egypt (AP) — Crocodiles living in the Nile waters of Upper Egypt for the past several thousand years have only two years to live, Aswan High Dam experts predict. Lake Nasser, which will rise behind the dam, is expected to cause fast currents during formation. Crocodiles which have terrorized Egyptians since the Pharaohs learned to swim, will not be able to survive the rapid life imposed on them.

In Toastmasters' Competition Here

Weirton Man Retains Speech Title

Principals in the Area 12 Speech Contest of Toastmasters International at the Travelers Hotel Saturday night were, left to right, Edward B. White of Beaver, Region 6 Director; John Burdette of Wheeling, fourth place; Joe Young of Weirton, who repeated as champion; George Rebbes of Steubenville, runner-up; Charles R. Cronin of East Liverpool, third place, and Matt Hammond of Washington, Pa., lieutenant governor of Southern Division, District 13.

Using a cleverly-developed presentation entitled "The Lost Penny," Joe Young of Weirton retained his championship in the Area 12 speech contest of Toastmasters International Saturday night at the Travelers Hotel.

The 43-year-old employee of Weirton Steel thus qualified for the next round of competition, the Southern Division, District 13, contest in April at Uniontown, Pa. Another victory there would place Young in the Regional finals at Rochester, N. Y., one step away from the International finals at Toronto, Canada. Last year, the tall, expressive steel-worker advanced to the Regional finals in Windsor, Canada, where a minister placed first.

THERE WERE four contestants in the Area 12 contest. Runnerup was George Rebbes, 42-year-old Wheeling Steel Corp. employee who represented the Steubenville Toastmasters Club and spoke on "Cerebral Palsy." East Liverpool's contestant, Charles R. Cronin, an employee of Weirton Steel, placed third with a patriotic presentation entitled, "Two Steps Left." In fourth place was John Burdette, 36, of Wheeling, a mining engineer at the Hanna Coal Co., who spoke on "How Do You Rate With Your Supervisor?"

Area 12 governor A. T. Knabb of Weirton and Matt Hammond of Washington, Pa., lieutenant governor, Southern Division of District 13, presented trophies to the winner and runner-up; a Toastmasters money clip to the third-place contestant, and a tie tack to the fourth-place candidate.

The East Liverpool Club was host. White pointed out in brief remarks that East Liverpool was one of the first 300 cities in the U. S. to organize a Toastmasters Club, although the city's first club disbanded many years ago.

Francis House, educational vice president of the local club, served as toastmaster. Donald S. Hancock, president, gave welcome remarks.

The Rev. Allen Conway, pastor of the First Methodist Church offered the invocation. John Paul Jones of the Weirton club, who is president of the Hancock County Board of Education, served as chief judge.

BASIC FACTS ABOUT DIAMONDS

In every lifetime, man or woman, there comes a time to select a fine diamond. Certainly, there is no precious gem in the world today that has so captured the fancy and admiration of people as a brilliant, well cut clear diamond. It is an attraction that has endured for centuries, and economically, one that has aspects of a sound investment.

Basically, there are four factors to consider when buying diamonds, plus the added point of knowing your jeweler and his qualifications for diamond grading. We call these points the "Four C's" - Cutting, Color, Clarity and Carat Weight.

Their rank in importance is also in that order, although all four factors affect the price of your diamond.

A diamond that is cut and polished with proper proportions reflects more fire than a poorly cut and polished stone, therefore it is a more attractive gem. A diamond of good color - as nearly colorless as possible - allows the fine cutting and resultant brilliance to show up more strongly. The body color I am referring to, is not to be confused with "fancy" diamonds which range from canary yellow to shades of pink, green and brown.

As for Clarity, the diamond should be free from obvious inclusions - "flaws" being the ideal. Last of all, the price per carat is established based on the other three quality points, and on the weight of the gem.

Two Children Perish In Canton Area Fire

CANTON, Ohio (AP) - Two children died early today in a fire that destroyed the home of a Canton doctor.

Killed were Jill Furness, 7, and her brother, Terrance, about 5. The parents, Dr. and Mrs. Terrance Furness, and two other children, escaped.

More than 70 firemen with 11 pieces of equipment fought the flames in the two-story brick home in the Lake Cable area northwest of Canton.

Firemen said the dead children had been trapped by flames on the second floor.

Cause of the fire was not determined.

None Injured In City

5 Car Collisions Listed By Police

Five collisions marred East Liverpool traffic on the weekend, but no one was injured, police reported.

Two parked cars were damaged, one heavily, in a hit-skip crash Sunday at 2:42 a.m. on W. 4th St. 50 feet east of Jackson St., officers said.

The collision involved a parked 1964 model convertible owned by Ralph Roush of Grand Ledge, Mich., and a 1960 two-door sedan owned by Carl Neer of 140 W. 4th St.

Roush's auto was struck from the rear by a hit-skip auto and shoved forward into Neer's car, police said. There was heavy damage to the entire rear of the Michigan car and a small dent in the trunk of the local auto.

Patrolman David K. Mumaw, who investigated, said the hit-skip car turned off Jackson St. onto W. 4th St. The two parked cars were on the south side of W. 4th St., headed east. Officers obtained a description of the offending auto.

ANOTHER hit-skip crash Saturday at 9:10 p.m. on Dresden Ave. at Green Ln. damaged the left rear fender and trunk of a parked 1967 model hardtop owned by Percy Atkinson of 9th and Washington Sts., Newell.

A witness told Atkinson he saw another car back into the Newell man's auto and then leave the scene.

An auto and a bus were involved in a collision Saturday at 10:24 p.m. on E. 4th St. at Walnut St.

The crash caused very minor damage to the right front fender of a 1965 model sports car operated by Victor L. Buchheit of 234 W. 4th St. There was no damage to a 1965 model bus owned by the Ohio Valley Charter Co. of R.D. 2 and driven by John W. Taylor of 725 Minerva St., police said.

Buchheit was proceeding directly through the intersection and the bus was turning south off E. 4th St. onto Walnut St., police said.

Two cars were involved in a collision in Drury Ln. 50 feet east of Washington St. Saturday at 11:30 a.m.

The mishap involved a 1963 two-door sedan driven by Paul J. Hartford, 57, of Wellsville, R.D. 1 and a 1963 model four-door sedan operated by Ralph J. Cochran, 25, of 1004 1/2 May St.

Hartford said he was driving north in a driveway that leads to the Putters Bank and Trust Co.'s TV bank. Cochran was proceeding west in Drury Ln. The vehicles collided at the junction of the driveway and the alley.

The crash damaged the right door and quarter panel and right fender of Hartford's auto. The Cochran car was not damaged.

A MISHAP on E. 3rd St. Sunday at 7:10 p.m. damaged a 1963 model station wagon driven by Nicholas Turkaly, 43, of 1215 Fairmont St. and a 1967 four-door sedan operated by Clyde C. Arnot, 58, of 514 Jefferson St., Newell, officers said.

Both vehicles were traveling east about 30 to 35 miles an hour, Turkaly told Patrolman W. F. Copestick he was intending to make a left turn and the two vehicles "got a little too close" to each other. Arnot reported Turkaly attempted to pass and sideswiped the Newell car.

The mishap scratched the right side of the station wagon, which is owned by Arb Motor Sales of 1340 Pennsylvania Ave., officers said. It damaged the left front fender and bumper of Arnot's car.

Senate Probe Launched In Apollo Blaze

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate space committee opens the first public inquiry into the Apollo spacecraft tragedy today in the wake of a space agency report that risks of fire had been misjudged.

The testimony from top space officials comes exactly one month after the fire that killed three astronauts.

"We thought it better to have the testimony in open session," Chairman Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., said.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration, which has been handling the principal investigation of the disaster at Cape Kennedy, has so far issued three reports on its progress.

But today's hearing marks the first time the agency's officials have made themselves available to an outside body to answer questions raised by the fire.

In a report released Saturday, NASA said that "continued alertness to the possibility of fire had become dulled by previous ground experience and six years of successful manned missions."

The risks of uncontrollable fire had been misjudged, the agency said. The report called for a number of corrective measures.

NASA chief James E. Webb, Deputy Director Robert C. Seamans Jr. and George E. Mueller, head of the manned space office, are expected to testify today.

NASA said in the report it is possible the investigators will be unable to pinpoint the exact cause of the fire, but that electrical malfunction is regarded as the "most likely source."

Other causes such as chemical reactions and spontaneous combustion are still being considered, the space agency said.

The review board conducting the inquiry is expected to conclude its work by the end of March. Disassembly of the space capsule and minute examination of the parts is still going on.

"The risk of fire that could not be controlled or from which escape could not be made was considerably greater than was recognized when the procedures for the conduct of the test were established," Webb said in a statement released with the report.

"The bursting of the capsule," he said, "happened in such a way that the flames, as they rushed toward the rupture and exhausted through it, traveled over and around the astronauts' couches. Under these conditions, and with just a few seconds of time available, the astronauts could not reach the hatch and open it."

"This fire indicates that a number of items related to the design and performance of the environmental control unit will require the most careful examination and may require redesign."

Your Question:
Some day I must make a decision concerning a mortuary or funeral home. How do I go about it?

Our Answer:
There are several ways. You might ask your clergyman, your attorney or your friends. Or, you might look for the member of National Selected Morticians. Still another way is to get answers to these questions — (1) Do they operate a complete funeral establishment? (2) Are their prices marked in plain figures? (3) Do they stand well in the community? (4) Do they have the reputation of being helpful to those they serve?

Princess, Snowdon Deny Marriage Is On 'Rocks'

LONDON (AP) — Friends of Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon say their seven-year marriage has its ups and downs but deny London society gossip that it's on the rocks.

Talk about royal marriages, a favorite subject in London's Mayfair, was spurred by the recent announcement of the divorce plans of Lord Harewood, cousin of Queen Elizabeth II. The rumors about the Snowdons' differences of opinion.

"In fact, there appears to be absolutely no reason for suspecting that either Princess Margaret or her husband is contemplating separation in the foreseeable future."

A Buckingham Palace spokesman declined to comment.

The princess, 36, and her photographer husband, who as Antony Armstrong-Jones had been among the Chelsea Bohemians, are members of Britain's lively young society. Their friends include artists, entertainers and nobility.

Lord Snowdon has been in Japan for nearly a month on a photographic assignment for the Sunday Times. One rumor was that he left unexpectedly when the princess entered a hospital Feb. 1 without waiting to learn the nature of her illness.

Actually, the Japanese trip had been planned for weeks and Lord Snowdon knew before he left that his wife was to undergo routine medical checks.

Sporting a beard, Lord Snowdon appeared on Tokyo television today. The 16-minute interview had been taped Sunday and, following his wish to keep his Japanese stay private, Snowdon's whereabouts were not disclosed.

3 Are Injured As Car Skids, Strikes Tree

Three East Palestine teenagers were injured when the car in which they were riding skidded into a tree along Township Rd. 890, just over a mile east of Route 7 Sunday at 6:05 p. m.

The Highway Patrol at Lisbon said the car was operated by Charles E. Rutledge, 16, of 315 E. Grant St., East Palestine. He was driving westbound when the car went off the road, skidded sideways and hit a tree, officers reported.

Passengers were Bruce W. Hill, 15, of 657 Grandview Ave., East Palestine, and Kenneth D. Hunston Jr., 15, of 238 E. North Ave., East Palestine.

All suffered minor injuries and were taken to Salem City Hospital for treatment by the Negley volunteer firemen.

A station wagon operated by Woodrow W. Travis, 44, of East Liverpool Box 213 and a compact operated by Lewis James McIntosh, 31, of Vale St., Wellsville R. D. 1, figured in a collision Sunday at 1:05 p. m. on Route 30 a mile and three-tenths south of Route 7.

Officers said Travis was southbound when McIntosh attempted to enter the highway from a side road. Travis was unable to halt and hit the left front of the other vehicle. McIntosh was cited for failure to give the right-of-way at a stop sign.

Vietnam

Vietnamese shore gun which opened up on the bombarding ships" and that "none of the vessels sustained any damage."

Announcing the mining, U.S. headquarters said "the North Vietnamese are making increased use of waterborne logistic craft to infiltrate men and supplies into South Vietnam."

"To counter this," the announcement said, "the United States is employing a limited number of air-delivered, non floating mines in selected river areas in the southern portion of North Vietnam. This action poses no danger to deep-water maritime traffic."

A U.S. spokesman said no harbors — such as Haiphong — would be mined. This was apparently to avoid the risk of hitting Soviet and other foreign ships bringing supplies to North Vietnam.

A U.S. spokesman said the mines were of several types, either resting on the river bottom or moored to the bottom but remaining below the surface. The mines can be detonated by magnetic attraction from metal-hulled craft, or by noise or pressure from approaching vessels.

In the naval bombardment of North Vietnam Sunday, at least five warships pounded rail sidings, barracks areas, gun emplacements and other targets as well as coastal cargo barges which they have been attacking all along.

The destroyers Duncan and Picking fired their five-inch guns at an ammunition dump, a barracks area and a shore battery northeast of the coastal city of Vinh, but poor visibility prevented assessment of damages, the Navy said.

The destroyers Joseph Strauss and Benner and the cruiser Canberra attacked a variety of targets 10 to 20 miles southeast and east of Thanh Hoa, a major city 70 miles south of Hanoi.

Among targets shelled were a fuel storage dump, rail sidings, anti-aircraft guns and a storage cave. Again low clouds prevented damage reports.

The offshore bombardments, like the artillery shelling across the demilitarized zone and the mining of the rivers, were planned as supplements to the U.S. air attacks on North Vietnam. These raids have been hampered in recent weeks by continuing bad weather, which also prevailed Sunday and limited American pilots to 50 strike missions.

Most of the air strikes were in the southern panhandle although Navy pilots reported damaging two cargo barges 17 miles south of Haiphong. Air Force pilots struck at six truck parks 17 to 33 miles south of Dong Hoi in the panhandle.

In South Vietnam, the massive U.S. force pushing through war Zone C in Operation Junction City still met only sniper resistance during the sweep 70 miles northwest of Saigon.

American troops reported killing six more of the enemy Sunday to bring the total since the operation was launched last Wednesday to about 70 U.S. troops also uncovered two large base camps while pushing through the jungle Sunday.

One camp, 25 miles north of Tay Ninh City, contained 80 underground fortifications and 25 above-ground positions. A second camp, 22 miles northwest of Tay Ninh City, was heavily supplied with food, ammunition and weapons, U.S. spokesmen said.

The operation, largest of the war, has been supported by 747 air strikes so far. U.S. troops have seized 178 tons of enemy rice and destroyed 192 underground fortifications and 103 enemy structures.

High-Level Hanoi Unit On Mission In Burma

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — A high-level North Vietnamese delegation arrived in Rangoon over the weekend on a mission shrouded in much secrecy.

There was speculation that the North Vietnamese had come to talk with U.N. Secretary-General U Thant, who is paying a visit to his native Burma.

The North Vietnamese delegation is led by Col. Ha Van Lau, his government's chief representative to the International Control Commission in Hanoi. Other members are the consul general in Rangoon, Le Tong-sun, and a third man believed to be either the North Vietnamese representative in Cambodia who met with French President Charles de Gaulle during his visit there or a high official from the Vietnamese Foreign Office.

Rhodes Cancels Trip Due To Snow And Ice

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Snow and ice forced Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes to cancel plans to host a resources meeting for the Midwestern Governors Conference here today.

Rhodes turned the one-day session for 15 states over to Development Director Fred Neuschwander, who arrived in Toledo before the snow.

Norman Crabtree, state director of aviation, advised Rhodes against a flight from Columbus to Toledo after learning of icing conditions and poor visibility.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I run a respectable rooming house and don't have anybody under my roof who isn't God-fearing and church-going.

A widower moved in two years after I buried my husband. I enjoy the roomer's company but I am having a problem with him.

A few weeks ago I bought a wig. It looks very natural and when people compliment me I say, "thank you." Twice last week someone mentioned my beautiful hair and the roomer opened up his big mouth and blurted out, "It's not her hair. It's a wig."

I told him in private to keep his trap shut. He claims that what I'm doing is the same as lying and he's not going to stand for it.

What is your opinion of this?—FUMING.

Dear Fuming: It is not the roomer's place to offer a statement of origin when people give you a compliment.

If you were wearing false teeth and someone remarked on your lovely smile, would the roomer feel obligated to say, "She wouldn't look so good without those china clip-pers?"

Some women don't mind telling people they wear a wig. Others do. It's up to the individual to volunteer the information if she wants to. Everyone else should keep his mouth shut.

Middleman

Dear Ann Landers: I am employed at a very fine department store. They give all employees a generous discount of 20 per cent on all purchases.

I have a neighbor who pesters me almost every week to put something through on my account. At first, it was only for her, now it's for her mother, her daughter and her sister. This has become a nuisance because the charges go through my bill and this woman has a poor memory. On two occasions she insisted the purchases were not made for her. Later she "remembered." Last month I had trouble collecting the money.

Is there a gracious way to get out of this? I don't want to be bothered any more.—ST. LOUIS BLUES.

Dear Saint: What you have been doing is dishonest — and it could cost you your discount privileges. Knock it off and don't worry about being gracious. You need this woman's friendship like you need a case of scalp eczema.

Wrong Place

Dear Ann Landers: Please, Ann, put something in your column about people who drag 4- and 5-year-olds to funerals.

I realize sitters are hard to get during school hours, and they cost money, but surely some kind neighbor could take a youngster or two to help a mother when she must attend a funeral.

I just returned from my aunt's funeral. Two small children ran up and down the aisle, yelling and fighting. I was afraid they might upset the baskets of flowers. A third youngster cried throughout the service and the minister finally asked the mother to take the child out.

Your column is read like the Bible in many homes. Please continue to give people the guidance they can't get anywhere else.—STILL MAD.

Dear Still: Young children do not belong at funerals. If you need an outsider to back you up, you can count on me.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mill Suggestion Brings Check To Area Resident

An area man has received recognition for a suggestion to speed production at the Armco Steel Corp.

He is Francis A. Wargo of Salineville R. D. 2, who came up with an idea which will result in faster roll changes in the seamless tube mills.

He was presented a $100 check by J. O. Miller, works manager, the initial payment for his plan under the plant's "Major Suggestion Award" program.

Wargo, an Armco employe for 30 years, is a roller in the hot mill department. He and his wife Dagmar have seven children.

New Emphasis Being Placed On Fire-Resistant Fabrics

LISBON — More than 12,100 people, including approximately 300 Ohioans, perished in fires last year, according to Dr. M.K. Singer, county health commissioner.

National fire safety organizations set property loss from fires at $1,800,000,000 for 1966.

Both figures are higher than those for last year and are in proportion to increases in population and property values, the commissioner said.

Statistics reveal that approximately 6,500 died in dwelling fires and that about 2,100 of all victims in homes were children.

Dr. Singer said fire-resistant fabrics are particularly important for clothing for children, disabled persons and the elderly. "Anyone who has ever seen a person horribly burned by a clothing fire knows the tremendous importance of this type clothing," he said.

However, very few flame-retardant fabrics are being made available for sale and there is currently little public demand for them, he added.

Plans are being made to establish organizations dedicated to the development and marketing of such fabrics. The proposal for such organizations was adopted in December during a conference on burns and flame retardant fabrics at the New York Academy of Medicine.

Dr. Singer said public health accident and injury control specialists believe this is an important step toward meeting the problem.

The health commissioner said a few conditions were responsible for a great many of the fires. He listed these common causes:

Careless smoking, matches and lighters left within reach of children, smoking in bed, careless emptying of ash trays into waste baskets.

Improper use of electricity and appliances, overloaded circuits, frayed electric cords and broken plugs.

Holiday celebrations—jack-o-lanterns, fireworks, Christmas trees and wreaths.

Accumulation of rubbish, junk and old newspapers.

Improper use and storage of flammable liquids.

Clothing and fabrics catching on fire.

"Remember these two things in case of fire at your home," Dr. Singer said. "Get everybody out of the house and call the fire department."

'Heart Fund' Hits $6,750

Approximately $6,750 was collected in Heart Sunday solicitations in Columbiana County communities, according to George Wilson of Wellsville and Kenneth Hiscox of Lisbon, county co-chairmen.

They pointed out some of the communities observed Heart Fund Sunday Feb. 19 and some held their campaigns yesterday.

East Liverpool conducted its canvass yesterday and the follow-up is continuing, so no figure is available yet, it was explained.

Other larger communities have reported canvass totals. They follow, with amounts and chairmen:

Salem, $845, Mrs. Albert Lesch; East Palestine, $621, Mrs. Barbara Watson and Miss Virginia Smith; Wellsville, $539, Mrs. Mary Welch; Columbiana, $661, Mrs. William C. McMahon; Lisbon, $492, John P. Wargo, and Leetonia, $274, Joseph Weikart.

Chairmen say these figures are for residential campaigns only and other contributions are expected from industry, business and by direct mail solicitations.

Nixon To Leave Friday On Trip To Europe, Asia

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon leaves Friday for Europe and Asia in what some observers see as the beginning of a drive to get the 1968 Republican presidential nomination.

Nixon's strategy, apparently, is to emphasize his knowledge of foreign affairs.

One of Nixon's top aides stressed Sunday that the tour will not be a business trip for his New York law firm, as previous ones have been described.

The aide said: "This is a personal fact-finding trip by the former vice president. It is not a business trip. He will be listening, not speaking. There will be no scheduled press conferences, no public talks until he returns to the United States."

Nixon's aides said he will be meeting with the top leaders of the countries he visits.

He flies first to London for four days and then will spend eight days in Paris, Bonn and Rome.

Damage High In Home Fire

Fire caused heavy damage to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cramer of Clinton, R.D. 1 Sunday at 8 a.m.

The blaze, which started around an open fireplace, burned through the roof around the chimney and the wall at the rear of the fireplace.

The Southside volunteer fire department from Hookstown received the first call and was aided by volunteers from Independence Township and Hanover Township. Firemen were hampered by the coating of ice that formed when water was sprayed onto the flames.

Mr. and Mrs. Cramer and their four children escaped unharm.

Congress To Air LBJ Cutback On Highway Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress opens joint Senate-House hearings today on President Johnson's sharp cutback in federal spending for highway construction.

Members of the Public Works committees from both branches will sit in on the hearings.

Some of them said frankly in advance of the testimony that they hoped the hearing would generate enough pressure to lead the President to rescind his order.

Johnson announced late last year that he was withholding $1.1 billion of the $4.4 billion authorized by Congress for federal road grants to the states in the current year.

Gardner Ackley, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, was scheduled as first witness for the administration. Johnson said in announcing the cutback that it was part of an anti-inflationary program.

The committees will also hear today from a strong opponent of the order, Gov. John Volpe of Massachusetts, appearing for the governors' committee on highways.

Potters Face Coshocton In District Tourney Friday

After Capturing First Sectional Title In 10 Years

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

The East Liverpool Potters took their longest step in 10 years on the Class AA tournament trail after disposing of an old nemesis, Steubenville Big Red, 54-41, to capture the Sectional basketball crown before 1,978 fans Saturday night at the Community Arena in Steubenville.

The impressive victory gave the Potters a ticket to the District tournament, which will open Friday on the same arena floor.

PAIRINGS for the District action already have been made, with East Liverpool going against Coshocton, winner of the New Concord Sectional, in the first game Friday at 7 p. m.

Rounding out the District field are Bellaire and New Philadelphia, who will clash in the second game at 8:30. The two survivors from Friday will meet for the District championship Saturday night at Steubenville, with the winner advancing to Regional competition at the Fairgrounds in Columbus.

COSHOCOTON gained the Sectional crown at New Concord by defeating Cambridge, 74-54 Friday. Coshocton enters the District with a 17-3 mark.

Bellaire is in District play by virtue of a 79-76 victory over Martins Ferry Saturday night, while New Philadelphia defeated a favored Claymont team, 69-54, to win Sectional laurels at Dover.

The Sectional championship Saturday night was the first since 1957 when the Potters defeated another Steubenville Big Red team for the title.

The tournament success comes in Clinton McConnell's first season as head coach here. The Potters will carry an 11-game winning streak into the District tourney and an overall record of 16-5.

THE POTTERS looked good in their Sectional tourney final, turning in one of their best performances of the season.

East Liverpool never trailed after the opening minute and got off on the right foot with a good first quarter that carried the Blue and White to a 13-7 lead after eight minutes.

McConnell ordered a control type game the second period and it worked well enough to protect the lead. East Liverpool took only four shots during the second period and made three, with Bruce Christian scoring all seven points, giving the Potters a 20-12 margin at halftime.

EAST LIVERPOOL stepped up its attack in the second half, especially in the fourth period, scoring 21 points in the final eight minutes.

The Potters played for the good shot and waited for a breakdown in the Big Red defense to score on easy lay-ins.

East Liverpool's shooting percentage was 46 on 21 of 45 attempts. The Potters were taking only good shots from under the hoop and didn't try more than a half-dozen from outside.

McCONNELL, who was elated following the contest, called the victory "a team effort," but was quick to point out the outstanding performance of Mitchell Jones.

"He got the boards for us and also did a good job of bringing the ball up the floor against the Big Red press."

THE BIG difference in the game could well be in Jones, the 6-5 junior. He came up with one of his better scoring nights of the season, hitting for 14, and was a bearcat around the boards. He led the Potters in rebounding with 14. Vern Smith pulled down eight. Jones made five of eight shots from the field.

Herring, a senior, drew the starting assignment Saturday night, replacing Earl Diddle. He was effective as time after time he brought the ball up the floor singlehanded as Big Red's press did not bother the Potters too much during the course of the game.

CHRISTIAN, a 6-4 junior, was at his best and led the team in scoring with 16 points. His field goal percentage was high again as he hit 7 of 10 attempts and scored all seven of East Liverpool's points in the second quarter, connecting on three straight goals.

Mike McVay finished with a valuable 13 points. After scoring only two points in the first half, the junior guard tallied 11 in the second half, seven coming in the final period.

SENIOR Vern Smith hit double figures with 10 points, but was off the mark more than usual. Smith made four of 14 attempts, while connecting twice from the foul line on nine attempts.

McConnell went all the way with five starters and didn't substitute until 28 seconds remained in the game.

East Liverpool's defense kept Big Red away from the basket most of the evening and caused Steubenville to hit only 30 per cent from the field. Big Red fired 52 times and made 16. Most of the shots were from outside.

DON OSBY, Big Red's top scorer, finished with 11 points

District Tournament Tickets Go On Sale

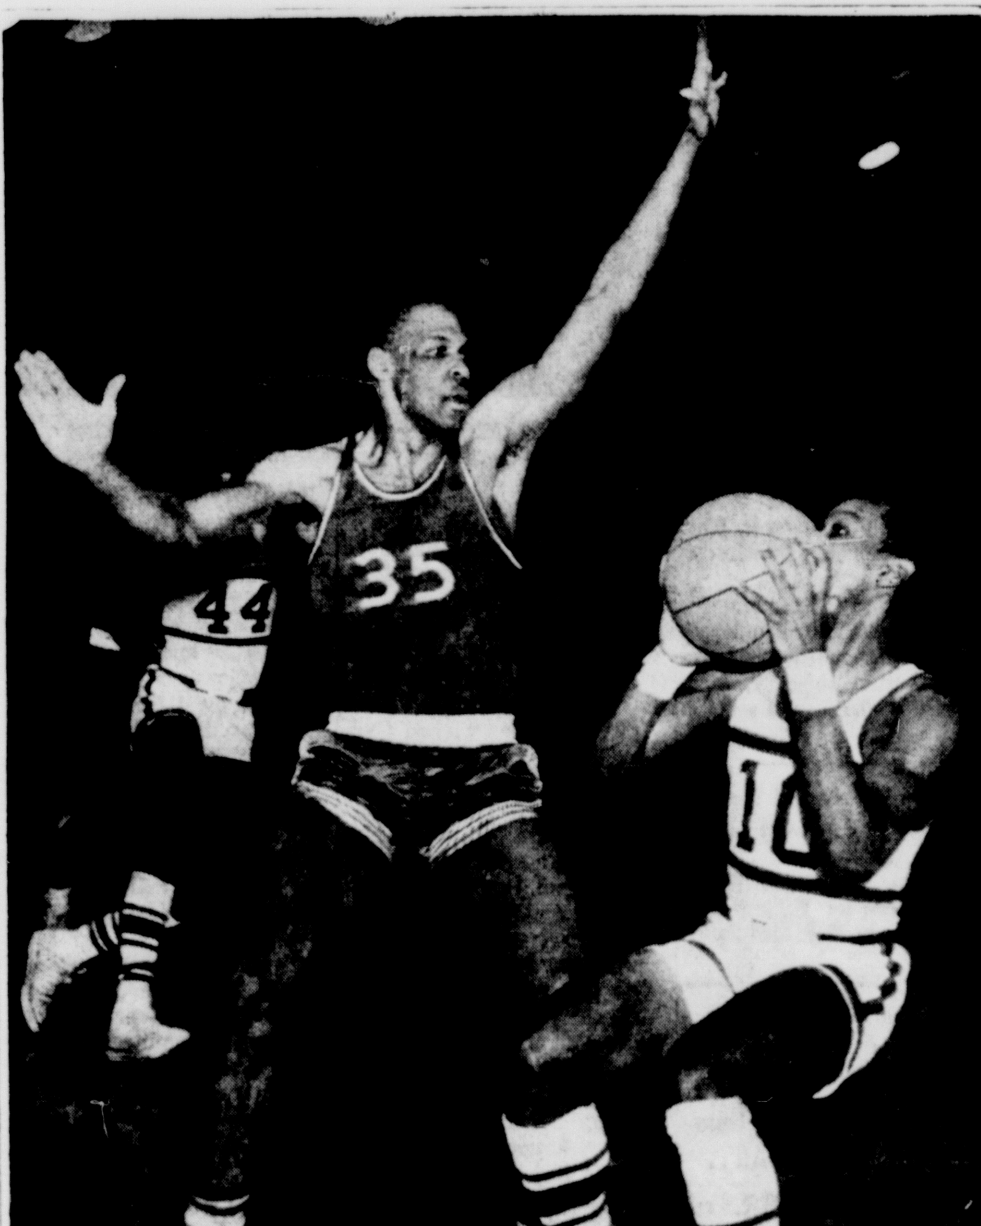

Tickets for the East Liverpool - Coshocton District tournament game Friday at Steubenville went on sale today and will remain on sale during the remainder of the week at the First National Auto Bank on E. 4th St. All seats are general admission. East Liverpool received 500 adult tickets and 500 student tickets.

while Art O'Merry, who had scored 32 in Big Red's opening victory over Winterville, finished with 10.

With the Potters leading 20-12 at halftime, Big Red never came closer than five points the remainder of the third quarter.

A field goal by Freeman and a foul by Osby pulled Big Red within five, 29-24, with 1:13 to go, but McVay scored and Jones hit two foul shots for a 33-24 margin at the end of the third quarter.

STEUBENVILLE narrowed East Liverpool's lead to four points with 3:14 to go in the fourth quarter for its final bid. Big Red baskets by O'Merry and Osby cut the lead to 41-37, the Potters safely in front again 49-37 with only 1:24 to go.

EAST LIVERPOOL'S Vern Smith (35) seems to be saying "whoa that's far enough" as he checks Steubenville's Glen Hardney (10) during the first half of Saturday's Sectional tournament final at Steubenville.

Advances To District

United Upsets North Lima

STRUTHERS — Coach Jack Mills' United Golden Eagles pulled off one of the biggest upsets in Class A tournament circles here Saturday night by surprising top seeded North Lima 59-43.

United, in winning the Sectional title, will now advance to the District tournament at the Canton Fieldhouse meeting Dalton (18-3) Tuesday at 7 p. m.

North Lima entered Saturday's game with a 14-game winning streak and a 2-1 record. North Lima ranked eighth in the state poll, also had defeated United in regular season play.

United went on top 13-8 but North Lima bounced back to tie the score at 18-18 late in the second period. Before the half ended, United went back on top 28-22 and never trailed again.

After three periods United inched closer to its upset by holding a 42-34 margin with eight minutes to go. Bill Farmer, who finished with 15 points, paced United, was the big gun in the third period for the Eagles.

Behind Farmer was Tom Wood with 11 points while Rick Engle tallied 10.

Bill McMeans scored 14 points for North Lima.

The victory leaves United with a 16-4 record.

In Quarter-Final Game Tuesday

Midland Seeks To Whittle Fox Chapel To Own Size

The Midland Leopards might think they're seeing double when they go out Tuesday night in an attempt to cut Fox Chapel down to their size in a WPIAL Class A quarter final battle at the Civic Arena in Pittsburgh.

Game time Tuesday is 7:30 p. m. The Midland - Fox Chapel clash will be followed at 9 p. m. by the Ambridge - Westinghouse Memorial contest.

The two winners of Tuesday's games will meet Friday in the semi-finals which means Midland could be facing undefeated Ambridge Friday night.

Fox Chapel has two sets of twins in its starting lineup and one set stands 6-8 each. They are Garry and Barry Nelson, both 6-8 seniors.

Coach Hank Kuzma rates Garry the better of the two as an all-around performer but both boys are hitting in the double figures and naturally lead the team in rebounding.

The other twins are Bill and Rick Cook, who are not quite as tall as the Nelsons, standing 5-11.

Fox Chapel of Section 10 brings an 18-4 record into the tournament.

Kuzma's tallest performers are Rich Mahurt and Jeff Lake, standing 6-foot each but Midland has been able to cope with the height problem in the past.

Midland's starting lineup will be rounded out with Jan Samuels, John Williams and Dave Vanlier.

The Leopards will take a 22-1 record into the quarter-final game.

Oak Glen Edges Weirton For W. Va. Wrestling Crown

Price, Louk And Lowther Capture Individual State Titles

Oak Glen High School has claimed its first state championship. It came in wrestling as three of Coach Vince Monseau's grapplers won individual state titles Saturday at Mountaineer Fieldhouse in Morgantown.

The Golden Bears entered only four wrestlers in the state meet, but walked off with team honors, edging last year's champion, Weirton, 37-36, as the Northern Panhandle dominated the competition.

Rick Price, the tough 103-pounder and Dave Lowther, strong 145-pounder, finished the season undefeated by winning their championship matches and Ralph Louk captured the 127-pound title to give Oak Glen enough points to win the state crown.

IN THE finals Price won his 24th straight when he pinned Spradlin Nelson of Charleston Herbert Hoover in 59 seconds of the first period. Price's pin was one of four recorded in the final matches.

Louk, who finished the season with a 21-2 record, was awarded a judges decision over Rick Henry of Martinsburg in the 127-pound match.

LOWTHER won the 145-pound title by decisioning Hugo Payne of Beckley 4-0 for his 24th victory against one tie.

Oak Glen's fourth qualifier to the state meet, Randy Hobbs, a 112-pounder, lost in the opening round on Friday.

Naturally excited over the school's first state crown, Monseau said "I am very proud of these boys, they worked hard and reached their peak in the state tournament."

PRICE reached the finals with decisions of 6-0 in the semi-finals and 7-1 in the first round. Louk posted a 6-2 decision in the semi-finals and 12-0 in the first round while Lowther won a 3-1 victory in the semi-final match and 6-0 in the opening round.

Weirton, the runnerup team had two individual winners in Matteo Magnone who defended his heavyweight title with a pin in 22 seconds of the second period.

WEIRTON's other champion was Dwight Motley, 138-pounder, who won a 7-0 decision in the finals.

Dayton Chaminade, New Lebanon Bows

New Champions Assured

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — New state champions were assured today in both Class AA and A as Ohio's high school basketball teams continued to blaze a tournament trail toward St. John Arena.

Last year's victors, Dayton Chaminade in AA and New Lebanon Dixie in A, were sidelined from further competition Saturday. Dayton Fairview ousted Chaminade 62-58 and Arcanum spoiled Dixie's hopes, 65-63.

Otherwise, eight of the top ten teams in The Associated Press ratings of Class AA schools were still in contention and nine of the Class A elite also survived sectional tiffs.

Major casualties Saturday were eighth-ranked Waverly, beaten by tournament-tough Portsmouth 67-59, and North Lima, ranked No. 8 in the small school division, but a 59-43 victim of United Local.

Saturday's winners included No. 3 Dayton Roosevelt, No. 4 Columbus Linden, No. 5 Cleveland East Tech and No. 9 Worthington in the large school competition.

Class A victors included No. 1 Ames-Bern, No. 2 Strasburg, No. 4 Fort Recovery, No. 7 East Canton, No. 9 Carey and No. 10 Sandusky St. Mary.

its only setback by nipping Toledo Central 61-59.

Top-ranked Columbus East shoots for its 18th straight tonight against Columbus Central (6-11).

The Washington Senators were shut out 20 times last year.

By HAL HUMPHREY

Honored Visit From Honor Blackman

Miss Honor Blackman is here from England to tape her first American TV show, which in itself is not a particularly startling fact, but it seems to take on more importance after you meet Honor herself.

"I was on holiday with my husband in Barbados when my Hal Humphrey agent called and said ABC had this T. E. B. Clarke story — he's the one who wrote 'The Lavender Hill Mob' — and would I do it? Well, he told me the story briefly on the phone, and I said yes.

"MY HUSBAND wasn't too keen on the idea, because it meant cutting short our holiday by a week. But he's an actor, too, so at least he understood," explains Honor, in that nice matter-of-fact British manner which I'm sure deluded Adolf Hitler into thinking they didn't really care if he took over England or not.

Honor (that's her name and she's refused many times to change it) plays the double role of twins in this Clarke story called "The Wide-Open Door," scheduled to air April 20 as the first 90-minute production on ABC's "Stage 67" series.

One twin is the crafty leader of a gang planning a bank robbery, and she uses her sexy sister as bait to dazzle a Scotland Yard inspector, played by Tony Randall, who has two other roles in this comedy melodrama.

HONOR'S previous two trips to our country were barnstorming tours to promote movies in which she appeared. One was "Moment to Moment" and the other "Goldfinger," where the English blonde gained dubious fame as James Bond's intended nemesis, Miss Galore.

"Goldfinger" was Honor's first American movie and the direct result of costarring with Patrick Macnee in the British TV series, "The Avengers," which she did for two years.

By the time "The Avengers" first came to American TV (in April of last year), Honor's role had been taken over by Diana Rigg, whom we see in the current episodes on ABC Friday nights.

IT WAS HONOR who created the black leather suits now worn by Diana in "The Avengers," and so famous a figure did she cut on the commercial "telly" in England that the London Sunday Times lowered its dignity long enough to comment on her TV doings and ask, rhetorically, where it all would end. In spite of American exposure of "The Avengers" after Honor voluntarily left it for the glitter of "Goldfinger," she insists she is not sorry. "All of that judo and karate got to be a crashing bore," says Honor. "I was beginning to think my lot in life was to be permanently black and blue, because I did my own stunts, you see."

BESIDES THAT, Honor has decided that after she left it "The Avengers" wasn't as "in" or as much fun to do. It went on film then, and Diana and Patrick aren't able to cut up the little "private joke" ad-libs which Honor and Patrick used to cut up.

"We played it very near the knuckle. I don't mean filthy, but—well—saucy. And it was great fun to bump into one's friends later and find 'o our surprise that they'd read into it exactly what we'd hoped they would," explains Honor.

She seems to have a habit of playing things "very near the knuckle." On the promotion tour for "Goldfinger," Honor made an appearance with Johnny Carson on his "Tonight" show and discovered later that her description of the Galore role had largely been "blipped" out of the tape by the NBC censors.

ON THE SAME SHOW Honor brought down the house and virtually the whole network when she demonstrated a few judo throws to Carson.

"Oh, really, it was quite innocent, at least on my part," recalls Honor.

During her stay in Hollywood, Honor has watched hardly any of our TV, but says what she has seen appears as "junky" as Britain's. The American-made "Bonanza" is leading the TV hit parade in Britain, reports Honor, who adds, "I generally prefer to read."

As soon as she finishes up her TV chores here, Honor heads for London, where she and Peter O'Toole will star in a TV production of Noel Coward's "Present Laughter."

Governor To Protest Higher Seaway Tolls

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The Midwest Governors Conference, with Ohio's James A. Rhodes as chairman, expected to emerge from a one-day meeting here today with a formal protest to Washington of proposed higher St. Lawrence Seaway tolls.

In fact, the group likely would send the federal government a request to eliminate tolls and user charges on the seaway entirely.

30 Arrested In London On Dope Charges

LONDON (AP) — Narcotics squads swooped down on hundreds of teen-agers at clubs and house parties in five British cities over the weekend. Scores of detectives — some aided by dogs trained to sniff out marijuana — arrested more than 30 young men and girls on charges of possessing drugs.

Huge quantities of reefer and pep pills were seized in the raids. Official sources said the crackdown was ordered by Home Secretary Roy Jenkins, who has expressed alarm at a considerable increase in teenage drug addiction.

In the past six years the number of known addicts in Britain has risen from less than 500 to more than 1,200, and the latter figure is considered a conservative estimate.

The raids were made in London, Exeter in the west, Winchester in the south, Manchester in the north and Folkestone on the Channel coast.

Police spokesmen said information gathered during the raids could lead to many more arrests.

The sniffer dogs were used in London. One picked up the scent of marijuana at a cafe on the Stepney waterfront, and two men were charged with possession of the drug.

Lightning Strikes And 'Drinks Up' Wine

BENKYOYAC, Yugoslavia — Lightning hit France Bacie's house again, passed through into the cellar and broke open a cask of wine.

"It's the fifth time lightning has hit my place," he said, "but it's the first time it ever drank my wine."

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Saucer Trick Cuts Off Pounds

A young lady realized the calories were obviously getting ahead of her when her older brother dubbed her "Miss Heap 'O Calories."

That did it. While setting the dinner table the next evening, on impulse she put a saucer at her place instead of a dinner plate. Also, she tried other slimming tricks. Determined to stop being a two-fisted eater, she ate only with her right hand — instead of having a piece of bread in one hand and a fork in the other. To slow down her eating rate, she tried to really taste each mouthful, starting with the first one. She did not fork into more food until she had finished with the one she was savoring. Prior to the new plan, this 16-year-old had eaten so fast she didn't know how the food tasted and had to take seconds to find the real flavor of the food. She reported.

Ida Jean Kain

"I'm winning! You wrote that big portions lead to bigger proportions, and that members of the heaped plate club were headed for embonpoint. I looked up that word and decided I was on the road to Fatsville. Tell your teen-agers that you can heap a saucer and still keep within bounds. It really helps. Smaller portions lead to smaller proportions. Once you get in the habit it's not too tough. Already I weigh 12 pounds less. It's far better than a strict diet. Best of all, my older brother who teased me by calling me Miss Heap 'O Calories, greeted me with 'Hello Beautiful!'"

Try an experiment. Shift to a supper size plate for dinner. Modest portions will appear ample on a smaller plate. Smaller servings help to cut appetite down to size. When you stop eating so much at a meal, you stop wanting to eat so much. You feel satisfied on less food.

Try another test. Can you bear to feel just slightly hungry for a single week? The practice is definitely slimming, and by the end of one week you will find to your pleased astonishment that you do not want quite so much food.

If a week seems like a long time, think in terms of a single meal. Feed your hunger but do not cater to your appetite. After you have eaten one modest helping of everything planned for the meal, get up from the table and walk into the other room.

For the next 30 minutes do something to divert your attention. Play a record, read the papers, work on a puzzle. If you are a homemaker, stay out of the kitchen for the next half-hour. Don't even clear off the table.

Realize that while you are at the dining table it is not easy to tell where hunger leaves off and the lure of the palate carries on. But 30 minutes after a meal you will be in control for you will feel content.

Marinate cubes of lamb (from shoulder with all fat removed) in a mixture of red wine, olive oil and seasonings. Thread on skewers with squares of green pepper and broil.

Goldberg Says U.S. Will Keep Support In Viet

TOKYO (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg ended a three-day visit to Japan today with a pledge that the United States will continue to stand by South Vietnam while pursuing peace efforts.

"What is necessary is for the other side also to have the will and the wish and the desire to make peace," Goldberg told Prime Minister Eisaku Sato before leaving for South Korea.

Goldberg arrived in Tokyo Friday for the first stop of a fact-finding mission for President Johnson to Japan, South Korea, Nationalist China, South Vietnam and the Philippines. He said he was not carrying any new peace proposals.

Goldberg conferred for an hour with Sato today and said they discussed Vietnam "in some length." He said he told Sato "there could be no unilateral peace."

IT IS RARE to find a moderate-size home as efficient and handsome as this one. The lines are long, low and sleek. It is contemporary, yet of such subdued taste that it can blend well almost anywhere. Plan HA-4-BSP boasts large windows to take in the views, yet has broad, projecting roof overhangs to keep out the hot noonday sun in summer. The formal living and dining room adjoin on the right of the foyer in a popular L shape. The dinette-kitchen occupies the rear of the main floor, separated from the foyer by a decorative wall or screen. An open stair leads to the bedroom foyer. Real bonus of the house is the ground floor area, with spacious family room, laundry alcove and two rooms which could serve many purposes — bedrooms, den, study, sewing room or office or maid's room. Samuel Paul, 89-30 161 St. Jamaica, N.Y., designed the home which has 1,620 square feet basic area.

'Unfinished' Business Presents Opportunity

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

One of the best ways to "get your feet wet" in the area of wood finishing is to utilize the unfinished furniture sold in lumber yards, building supply establishments, large hardware stores and many variety and department stores, as well as places which make and sell nothing except this kind of merchandise.

These latter dealers usually are cabinet-makers who sell many of their products to larger stores, but who also deal directly with the consumer.

UNFINISHED pieces of furniture can be purchased in a wide variety of woods, with special emphasis on the kind most readily available in the area of the sale.

Soft woods most generally are used, especially those which are relatively inexpensive and can be worked easily. But unfinished hardwood also can be obtained in certain stores.

A single unfinished item, such as a bookcase, can be used for experimental purposes if you so desire.

If you have never seriously worked with any of the clear finishes, for instance, you might try giving one side of the bookcase a coat of shellac, the other side a coat of varnish and each of the shelves a different type of coating. Sound a bit frivolous?

Actually, it can be very interesting, as well as giving you some insight on how different finishes "take" on that specific kind of wood. It also gives you an idea of the differences in methods of application.

Another excellent experiment, as a starter, might be to take a can of wood stain and see how many different tones you can get with it by the length of time it is left on a portion of the wood before wiping it off.

The longer it is left on the darker the result. Some wood finishers get extra light shades by diluting the stain, if it has an oil base, with turpentine, applying it and wiping it off almost instantly.

OR YOU might further your wood finishing education by using a fine grade of sandpaper on one part of the bookcase and applying a finish; then putting the same finish on an unsanded part and noting the difference.

A few such tests as these, plus any others you might want to try, will give you a much better feeling for wood finishing than if you immediately went to work on a project.

It also will give you the confidence necessary to tackle a good piece of furniture, which many novices avoid because they are afraid they might botch the job.

First Quarter Looking Good, Steel Reports

CLEVELAND (AP) — The steel industry may have one of its best first quarters in mill shipments of finished products this year, Steel magazine reported today.

"Steel market analysts are betting that mill shipments of finished products in March will top the estimated 6.8 million net tons moved in February by 15 per cent," the metalworking weekly said.

"That will bring the first-quarter movement to around 21.8 million tons."

If the estimates are borne out, Steel said, the first quarter will rank as the second highest in the past six years.

In the first quarter of 1965 mill shipments totaled 25.4 million tons. But the projected 21.8 million tons exceeds by 9 per cent the average first-quarter movement in the 1961-66 period.

Steel said the persistent movement is due mostly to heavy consumption by railroads, construction and defense.

Steel's composite price on No. 1 heavy melting scrap was at $27.50, down 17 cents from a week ago, due largely to an adjustment at Pittsburgh.

The magazine said weakness persists in the ferrous scrap market, though some strength has been shown in the stainless steel market because of increasing exports.

Production of raw steel has continued at a pace close to that of early 1966, Steel said.

Output for the week ended Feb. 25 was estimated at 2,476,000, unchanged from the previous week and off only 6 per cent from the 2,626,000 tons poured in the same week last year.

B.C. Coins Found

JAIPUR, India (AP) — A shepherd boy found an earthen pot containing 50 silver coins which archeologists say may have been issued in the third or fourth century B.C., and which may be the oldest silver coins yet found in India. Jaipur district is in northwestern India, bordering the Great Indian Desert.

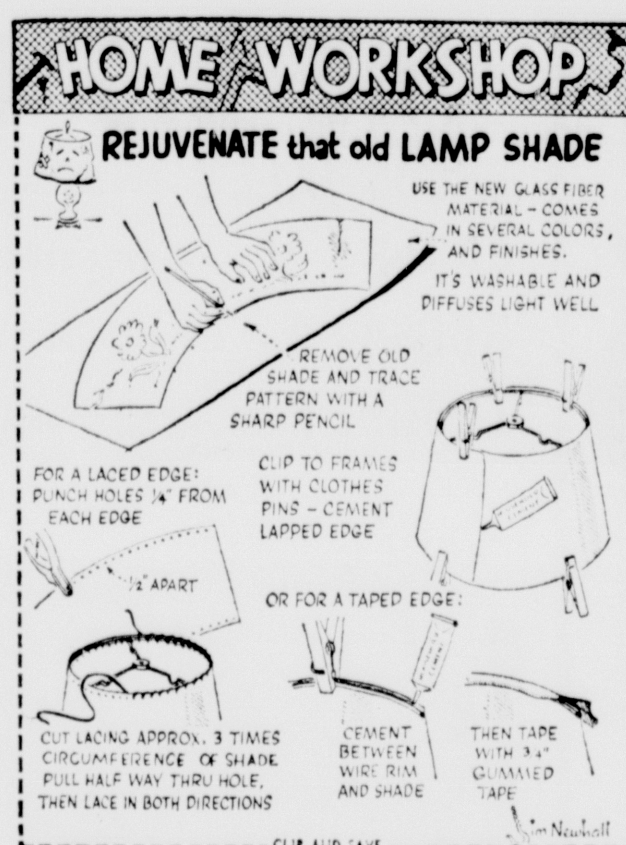

Nuts To Knots

BURNEY, Calif. (AP) — Nuts to knotholes, says the lumber industry. Pesky flaws don't faze woodcutters any more.

These days, knotholes are cut right out and the lumber that remains is joined with an extremely strong adhesive. Result: lower lumber costs and conservation of precious woodlands, reports National Starch and Chemical Corp., the adhesive maker.

Take, for instance, a local company which used the adhesive in a process called finger-jointing, which fits pieces together much as human fingers are interlocked. Then the company sands and prime coats the lumber and ships it all over the country.

The company reports that "torture" tests broke the wood but did not break the glued joint.

Paint Can Do Wonders If Bathroom Lacks Zip

The typical American bathroom has been criticized by interior decorators and hygienists alike for its lack of imagination and comfort.

Look at your own bathroom area with a critical eye — it should be both convenient and attractive. If your bathroom doesn't measure up, remember that you can quickly achieve a bright transformation with paint.

The new water-thinned enamels are a boon for your redecorating project. As you know, the bathroom is a busy place — and water-thinned enamels have the advantage of drying in a matter of hours. Not only are they quick-drying, but they are also virtually odorless. And your hands and paint brushes can be washed off with soap and water.

BEFORE YOU make your color decision, keep in mind these hints from the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association at Washington, D. C.: Yellow-green tones should be avoided — they give your skin a "sea-sick" look. Instead, choose a flattering color such as pink, peach, rose, pure green, or gold.

Lighting also should be chosen for its flattering effect. Standard, cool, fluorescent lights are out — they tend to give you a pale, unhealthy look. Incandescent bulbs or fluorescent lights in a warm white or soft pink will give you a glowing reflection in the mirror — a pleasant way to begin your day.

While you are redecorating, don't forget your bathroom accessories. Wooden towel racks and laundry hampers can be spray-painted in a matter of minutes. Choose a color that will blend in with the walls or add a bright accent with a contrasting color.

For a pleasant effect on your cabinet doors, stencils and ingenuity work wonders. If you're artistic, make your own. If not, a paint or art supply store will have many patterns for you to choose from. Secure stencils firmly to the dry surface with masking tape and apply the color with a stencil brush.

Window 'Lid' Nips Problem Of Dampness

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

Nine out of 10 houses have small basement windows set down in an enclosure.

Of necessity, these windows are below ground level. A house with an extra-high foundation is an architectural monstrosity. The enclosure is around the windows to keep rain and ground drainage from running into the basement.

Unfortunately, this does not always work out. In very heavy rain and during and after heavy snowfalls, much water can accumulate in the enclosure and drain into the cellar. Many of the complaints about wet and damp basements can be traced right back to the basement windows and their enclosures.

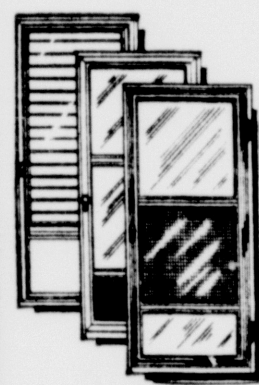

There is a definite remedy for this complaint. And it is a very simple one. It consists merely of making a plain wood cover which will fit over the top of the enclosure and prevent 90 per cent of the rain and snow from getting into it.

The lid is best made of exterior plywood which has had two good coats of paint. It is light enough to enable anyone to set it in place or remove it and stand it upright in the enclosure. Some have been made of cast-off lengths of wood with battens across to keep them together, and then covered with canvas.

The lid should be made long and wide enough to overhang the edges by a half-inch. This will eliminate the need for a handle or other means of lifting it.

If your house gets excessive moisture or dampness through the window wells, try this remedy and you will be surprised at the improvement in your basement conditions.

Leaders Push

Antimissile

Defense Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some congressional leaders are voicing doubts about administration attempts to negotiate an anti-missile ban with the Soviets and are pushing for earliest possible deployment of a U.S. missile defense system.

At the same time, former Sen. Barry Goldwater says the United States would have to break the limited nuclear test ban treaty to establish such a system, but Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, says that's not so.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said he believes Congress will appropriate more than the $337 million President Johnson has asked as standby funds in case there is no agreement with the Soviets and a decision is made to deploy an anti-missile system.

He added: "I don't think the President's negotiations are going to have any effect on Congress."

The Soviets reportedly have begun antimissile deployment already. The U.S. system, called Nike X, has been under development but not production.

Goldwater said Sunday that in secret testimony before the Senate Preparedness subcommittee in 1963, a scientist he did not name said the United States could not build an antimissile system without atmospheric tests.

Goldwater said the country still does not have the capabilities. Therefore, "if we seriously intend to go ahead with it (the antimissile system) I think we have to break the treaty. We have the right to do it. We have to be able to test the results."

Wheeler, however, said "oh yes" when asked if the system could be tested with the test ban treaty in effect. The Army general pointed to a "vigorous underground testing program in order to pursue such developments."

Wheeler again voiced his disagreement with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, who has said he opposes antimissile deployment if it can be avoided.

A Junior Editors Quiz About FLAMES

THE MOLECULE MEN

WHEN COLD

WHEN HOT

WARM AIR

COLD AIR

QUESTION: Why does a flame burn upward?

ANSWER: We all realize that heat rises. We can all see the cheerful flames of a campfire leaping upward, or the flame of a candle pointing toward the ceiling. But why? There is a simple answer.

Science tells us that all material things, whether solids, gases or liquids, are made up of the minute particles we call molecules. We symbolize these at the top of the picture as molecule men. These molecule men are always in some kind of motion, depending on the temperature. If it is cold, the molecule men, close together, move less rapidly with higher temperatures, they begin to race around (upper right) and this means they become farther apart. The material of which they are a part tends to expand. Gases like air expand the most. Warmed air becomes light because the molecules become farther apart. Heavier, colder air sinks underneath and pushes the warm air up. A flame is always this expands, it creates a partial vacuum, which helps to suck the flame below it upward.

Doctor Says Research Shows:

'You Can Control Blood Pressure'

This is the last of five articles prepared for Newspaper Enterprise Association on steps that can be taken to reduce the risk of heart attack. It has been prepared by Dr. Robert W. Wilkins, chairman of the Division of Medicine at the Boston University School of Medicine. The American Heart Association accorded him its highest honor—the Gold Heart Award—in 1962.

By DR. R. W. WILKINS
As recently as five years ago, I would have been hesitant to state categorically that one could "control" high blood pressure.

AEC Reports A-Blast In Soviet Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — Earth shocks from the Soviet Union suggesting a nuclear explosion "in the intermediate yield range" were recorded during the weekend, according to the Atomic Energy Commission. The terse AEC statement Sunday said the seismic signals "originated last night (Saturday) from the Soviet nuclear test area in the Smipalatinsk region. The signals were equivalent to those of a nuclear test in the intermediate-yield range."

This denotes an explosion equivalent to 200,000 to 1 million tons of TNT.

Another report of the earth tremors came from the Seismological Institute at Uppsala, Sweden.

It fixed the time of the shocks at 11 p.m. EST Saturday, agreed with the AEC on the probable location and said they were typical of shocks produced by underground nuclear explosions.
